

Carolinas Council for Affordable Housing

Advertisement Subscription Form 2023

One of the benefits of becoming a Carolinas Council for Affordable Housing (CCAH) member is you become a part of a diverse group involved in all aspects of the affordable housing industry within the Carolinas and beyond. CCAH membership includes owners, developers, management companies, equity companies, accountants, attorneys, non-profit agencies as well as companies that supply other relevant goods and services to the affordable housing industry. CCAH provides members with an opportunity to highlight their products and services through advertisements as well as relevant contributions to its bi-monthly newsletter and its website. As members, you will have direct access to your most valuable and sought-after customers. If you or your company is interested in letting CCAH help you bridge the communication gap and market your products and services, please submit this advertisement subscription form before January 31, 2023.
